

Jean Monnet International Conference EU4AFRI
"The European Union Multidimensional Strategy for Tackling Africa's Challenges"

11th May 2022, 13.30 – 16.30

Room 232 Building G and ON-LINE:

<https://teams.microsoft.com/j/19%3aEBWqfP-fOqnmjJHcfnEKj1VYnIcF0dDA7748R1Nza81%40thread.tacv2/1651784009085?context=%7b%22id%22%3a%22164e1b0e-c8e5-41a9-9bbb-6f7ed40eef04%22%2c%22oid%22%3a%22bec72ebb-3a76-405f-a1a9-703c07fb1e97%22%7d>

C O N F E R E N C E P R O G R A M M E

13.30 – 13.45 Opening session

- Dr hab. Magdalena Proczek, Prof. SGH – Head of the Jean Monnet Module EU4AFRI, Warsaw School of Economics
- Dr hab. Jacek Prokop, Prof. SGH – Vice Rector for International Relations, Warsaw School of Economics
- Prof. Ewa Latoszek – Head of the Jean Monnet Chair of the European Union, Warsaw School of Economics
- Dr Ewa Osuch-Rak – Assistant of the Jean Monnet Module EU4AFRI, Warsaw School of Economics

13.45 – 15.00 – I session (moderator: dr Anna Masłoń-Oracz)

- Dr Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba – Carleton University, Institute of African Studies; Beyond Trade: Reflections on Development Cooperation in EU-African Relations
- Prof. Jean-Marc Trouille – University of Bradford, Faculty of Management and Law, Jean Monnet Chair in European Economic Integration; The Role that Academic and Academic Networks can play in Regional Integration - Lessons and Opportunities for the East African Community
- Dr Monika Krukowska – Warsaw School of Economics, Instytut Studiów Międzynarodowych; France in Africa: financial cooperation for development
- Dr hab. Kamil Zajączkowski – University of Warsaw, Centre for Europe; EU-Africa relations in a period of transition of global order

Questions and answers

15.00 – 16.15 – II session (moderator: dr Monika Krukowska)

- Dr Josephine Ojiambo – Founder, Peter Ojiambo Foundation, Former Deputy Secretary-General of the Commonwealth; Guidelines in the Safe return to schools in Africa during COVID-19
- Dr Matías Manuel González Hernández – Universidad de Las Palmas de Gran Canaria; Sustainable, community-based tourism to promote human development in rural communities (case of Senegal)
- Dr Anna Masłoń-Oracz – Warsaw School of Economics, Institute of Management; AfCTFA, EU and AU Partnership objectives and imperfections
- MA Michał Kulpiński – Warsaw School of Economics, Department of European Integration and Legal Studies; Economic relations of the EU with the Global South – development policy and its coherence with EU trade policy and other policies
- MA Katarzyna Rokosz – Associate Economic Affairs Officer at United Nations, Africa-EU cooperation in response to current challenges. A view from UN Economic Commission for Africa.

Questions and answers

16.15 – 16.30 Closing remarks
Partners of the Project:

- Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence at Warsaw School of Economics – CEWSE and the Jean Monnet Chair of the European Union;
- Polish European Community Studies Association – PECSA;
- Institute of Management, Collegium of Management and Finance, Warsaw School of Economics;
- Institute of International Studies, Collegium of Socio-Economics, Warsaw School of Economics;
- The Centre for Europe, University of Warsaw;
- Department of International Economic Relations, Faculty of Economics, University of Economics in Katowice;
- Faculty of Economics, Gdansk University;
- Faculty of Administration and National Security, The Jacob of Paradies University in Gorzów Wielkopolski;
- The Center for Ecology and Eco-philosophy, The Cardinal Wyszyński University in Warsaw;
- Jean Monnet Module on the European Union and the Contemporary Sub-Saharan Africa – an Interdisciplinary Approach - Smart Specialisation-EUAfrica/AFROEU (AFROEU);
- Jean Monnet Module: European financial security in the global, regional and national dimension (EUSEC);
- Jean Monnet Module on the European Union and the Contemporary International Migration – an Interdisciplinary Approach (EUMIGRO);
- AEGEE.